Dear Reader,

Many people may not know this but there is a massive grass roots independent scientology movement growing outside the Church of Scientology. One might ask why this is. Is there some dissatisfaction with the Church perhaps?

The Grass roots movement is called the Freezone. The Freezone consists of people who have either been ousted from the church or left of their own accord as well as many people who have never even set foot inside a scientology church.

It is call the Freezone because it is just that. Since the death of Ron Hubbard, Founder of Scientology, the church has undergone a radical change by the incumbent management. Deep philosophical changes in the religion different to what Hubbard set out have been made. Text has been a altered and some even omitted. Many of the scientologists in the Freezone have found it more beneficial to subscribe to the original philosophy rather than the 'new wave' now emanating from the church.

Many Freezoners practice their philosophy very successfully and achieve outstanding results with the methods and practices as originally researched and developed by Hubbard. In fact there are groups around the planet which are expanding at a rapid rate.

Unfortunately the church has become one of the most litigious in the world and seems, on the face of it, more concerned with copyright protection and acquiring property than in 'spreading the word'. This seems to be having a devastating effect on the 'official church' in terms of numbers and lack of expansion.

That job now appears to have been taken over by the Freezone, who are going through a rapid expansion, even as the church is shrinking.

The future of Scientology is going to be very interesting. Indeed, we may very well see the growing movement outside the church surpass the church in numbers and expansion as they focus heavily on the philosophy and less on the material aspects.

Best wishes,

Michael Moore
President
International Freezone Association Inc.,

The Aims of Scientology and the IFA

Lafayette Ron Hubbard first issued the 'Aims of Scientology' which of course still stands. Yet, despite holding a copyright on these aims the Church of Scientology, RTC and the CST do not appear to be following these aims fully. Therefore it behooves us to take some responsibility and set out our aims, based upon the aims that Ron first envisaged as something which we can honestly strive to attain.

We therefore stated below:

The Aims of the IFA

To contribute towards having a sane society by the promotion, expansion and application of the technology to the point where people can live their lives in peace and security and without war or insanity and where they can honestly flourish and prosper and attain higher levels of spiritual being.

The IFA is non political in nature and welcomes any individual of any creed, race or nation.

The IFA does not seek revolution. The IFA seeks only to assist in paving the way for evolution to higher states of being for the individual and for society. After endless millennia of ignorance about himself, his mind and the universe, a breakthrough has been made for man by Lafayette Ron Hubbard with the philosophy and the technology he developed to free man from the shackles of his mind.

According to Lafayette Ron Hubbard, "The combined truths of fifty thousand years of thinking men, distilled and amplified by new discoveries about man, have made for this success."

We welcome you to the IFA We would like your help in achieving our aims and helping others and we hope to be able to help you in return.

The original working technology of Lafayette Ron Hubbard is the most vital movement on Earth today. In a troubled world, the job of promoting and applying this technology is not easy. But then, if it were, we wouldn't have to be doing it.

The IFA does not owe its help not having done anything to caused it to propitiate. We are here because we want to be here and we want to assist Ron in his aims.

As Ron says:

"Man suspects all offers of help. He has often been betrayed, his confidence shattered. Too frequently he has given his trust and been betrayed. We may err, for we build a world with broken straws. But we will never betray your faith in us so long as you are one of us.

The sun never sets on Scientology.

And may a new day dawn for you, for those you love and for man.

Our aims are simple, if great.

And we will succeed, and are succeeding at each new revolution of the Earth.

Your help is acceptable to us.

Our help is yours."

THE BRIDGE

"We find ourselves the sole guardians of the only bridge between the lower and the highest states of existence. .... Let us not apathetically shrug away the responsibility for accomplishing the hopes of Man, but keep for him a bridge which he can travel to reach a higher and far happier state of existence with similar resultant improvements in his societies, thus carrying him away from the inhumanity and barbarity with which he has been forced, through lack of enlightenment to handle his affairs."

"man has been trying for thousands of years to find his way upward and out. They way has been fond, the bridge approaches and spans well marked. If followed, it will be bumpy enough.

For you should not expect a ride on a cloud while passing in fact through the accumulated hell of eons. But you can get across and safely top the plateau."

"There is no shorter way than this. We're lucky that there's any way at all. There never has been before, you know."

"So good luck, good processing, good auditing and good wins. We'll see you on the other side."

ART

“Successful works of art have a message.

It may be implicit or implied, emotional, conceptual or literal, inferred or stated.

But a message nonetheless.

This applies to any form of art: paintings, sculpture, poetry, writing, music, architecture, photography, cine, any art form or any form that depends on art, even advertising brochures and window displays.

Art is for the receiver.

If he understands it, he likes it. If it confuses him, he may ignore or detest it.

It is not enough that the creator of the work understands it; those who receive it must.

Many elements and much expertise go into the creating of successful works of art. Dominant amongst them is message, for this integrates the whole and brings comprehension and appreciation to those for whom it is intended.

Understanding is the base of affinity, reality and communication.

A message is fundamental to understanding."

L. Ron Hubbard (HCOB 10 Mar 1984, Art Series 16, Message)

IS IT POSSIBLE TO BE HAPPY?

Is it possible to be happy?

A great many people wonder whether half of us even exist in this modern, rushing world. Very often an individual can have a million dollars, he can have everything his heart apparently desires, and is still unhappy. We take the case of somebody who has worked all his life; he has worked hard and he has raised a big family. He has looked forward to that time in his life when he, at last, can retire and be happy and be cheerful, and have lots of time to do all the things he has wanted to do; and then we see him after he has retired—and is he happy? No. He's sitting there thinking about the good old days when he was working hard.

Our main problem in life is happiness, but I'll tell you more in a moment. The world may or may not be designed to be a happy one. It may not be possible for you to be happy in this world, and yet nearly all of us have a goal to be happy and cheerful about existence.

You know, very often we look at the world around us and say that nobody could be happy in this place. We look at the dirty dishes in the sink, and the car needing a coat of paint, and at the fact that we need a new gas heater, we need a new coat, we need new shoes or we would just like to have better shoes; and so, how could anyone possibly be happy when actually he can't have everything he wants. He is unable to do all the things he'd like to do, and therefore, this environment doesn't permit a person to be as happy as he could be. Well, I'll tell you a funny thing—a lot of philosophers have said this many, many times—but the truth of the matter is that all the happiness you ever find lies in you.

You remember when you were maybe five years old, and you went out in the morning and you looked at the day, and it was a very, very beautiful day, and you looked at the flowers, and they were very beautiful flowers; twenty-five years later you get up in the morning, you take a look at the flowers—they are wilted. The day isn't a happy day. Well, what has changed? You know they are the same flowers, it's the same world, something must have changed. Probably it was you.

Actually a little child derives all of his "how" of life from the grace he puts upon life. He waves a magic hand and brings all manner of interesting things into being out in the society. Here is this big, strong brute of a man riding his iron steed, up and down, and boy, he'd like to be a cop. Yes sir! He would sure like to be a cop; and twenty-five years later he looks at that cop riding up and down and checks his speedometer and says, "Doggone these cops! "

Well, what is changed here? Has the cop changed? No. Just the attitude toward him. One's attitude toward life makes every possible difference in one's living. You know you don't have to study a thousand ancient books to discover that fact. But sometimes it needs to be pointed out again that fife doesn't change so much as you.

Once upon a time, perhaps, you were thinking of being married and having a nice home, and having a nice family; everything would be just fine. The husband would come home and you would put the dinner on the table and everybody would be happy about the whole thing; and then you got married and maybe it didn't quite work out. Somehow or other, he comes home late and he has had an argument with the boss, and he doesn't feel well. He doesn't want to go to the movies, and he doesn't see how you have any work to do anyhow— after all, you sit home all day and do nothing—and you know he doesn't do any work either. He disappears out of the house. He's gone. Then he comes back later in the evening, and quite an argument could ensue over this. Actually, both of you work quite hard. Well, what do we do with a condition like this? Do we just break up the marriage? Or touch a match to the whole house? Or throw the kids in the garbage can? Or go home to mother? Or what do we do?

Well, there are many, many things we could do, and the least of them is to take a look at the environment. You know, just look around and say, "Where am I? What am I doing here?" And then, once you have found out where you are, why, try to find out how you can make that a little more habitable. The day when you stop building your own environment, when you stop building your own surroundings, when you stop waving a magic hand and gracing everything around you with magic and beauty, things cease to be magical, things cease to be beautiful.

Other people seek happiness in various ways. They seek it hectically, as though it's some sort of mechanism that exists—maybe it's a little machine, maybe it's parked in the cupboard, maybe happiness is down at the next corner, or maybe it's someplace else. They're looking for something, but the odd part of it is, the only time they ever find something is when they put it there first. Now, this doesn't sound very plausible, but it's quite true. Those people who have become unhappy about life are unhappy about life solely and completely because life has ceased to be made by them. Here we have the single difference in a human being. We have here a human being who is unhappy, miserable, and isn't getting along in life, who is sick, who doesn't see brightness. Life is handling, running, changing, making him.

And here you have somebody who is happy, who is cheerful, who is strong, who finds that most things are pleasurable; and what do we discover in this person? We find out that he is making life, and there is actually a single difference: are you making life or is life making you ?

Carefully go into this, and you will find out that a person has stopped making life because he himself has decided that life cannot be made. Some failure, some small failure, maybe not graduating with the same class, or maybe that failure that had to do with not marrying quite the first man or woman that came along who seemed desirable, or maybe the failure of having lost a car, or just some minor thing in life started this attitude. A person looked around one day and said, "Well, I've lost," and after that, life makes him; he doesn't make life any more.

Now this would be a very critical situation if nothing could be done about it, but the fact of the matter is that it is the easiest problem of all the problems man faces—changing himself and changing the attitudes of those around him. It is very, very easy to change somebody else's attitude. Yet you are totally dependent upon other people's attitudes—somebody's attitude toward you may make or break your life. Did it ever occur to you that your home holds together because of the attitude the other person has toward you? So there are really two problems here—you would have to change two attitudes. One: your attitude toward somebody else, and two: their attitude toward you. Well, are there ways to do this? Yes, fortunately, there are.

For many, many centuries, Man has desired to know how to change the mind and condition of himself and his fellows. Actually, Man had a cumulative inclination to do this up to relatively few years ago. But, we are making it a very fast paced world; we are making it a world where magic is liable to occur at any time, and has. Man now understands a great many things about the universe he lives in, which he never understood before. Amongst the things he now understands is the human mind. The human mind is not an unsolved problem. Nineteenth century psychology didn't solve the problem, but that doesn't mean it has not been solved.

In modern times the most interesting miracles are taking place all across this country and across other continents of earth. What do these miracles consist of? They consist of people becoming well when they were ill, incurably ill. They consist of people who were unhappy becoming happy once more. They consist of abolishing the danger inherent in many of the illnesses and many of the conditions of Man. Yet the answer has been with Man all the time; Man has been able to reach out and find this answer, so perhaps Man himself had to change. Perhaps he had to come up to modern times to find out that the physical universe was not composed of demons and ghosts. To outlive his superstitions, to outlive the ignorance of his forbears. Perhaps he had to do everything, including inventing the atom bomb, before he could finally find himself.

Well, he has pretty well mastered the physical universe now. The physical universe is to him no longer a problem, he can do many things with it; and having conquered that, he can now conquer himself. The truth of the matter is he has conquered himself. The science of Scientology came about because of a man's increased knowledge of energy. Man became possessed of more information about energy than he had had before in all of his history; and amongst that, he came into possession of information about the energy which is his own mind. The body is an energy mechanism. Naturally, a person who cannot handle energy could not handle a body. He would be tired, he would be upset, he would be unhappy, and he looks all around him to find nothing but energy. If he knew a great deal about energy, particularly the energy of himself and the space which surrounds him, he, of course, would know himself; and that, in the final essence, has been his goal for many thousands of years.

To know himself. Scientology has made it possible for him to do so.

~ ~ ~ Definitions ~ ~ ~

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, something said or done to inform another that his statement or action has been noted, understood and received. “Very good,” “Okay,” and other such phrases are intended to inform another who has spoken or acted that his statement or action has been accepted. An acknowledgement also tends to confirm that the statement has been made or the action has been done and so brings about a condition not only of communication but of reality between two or more people. Applause at a theater is an acknowledgement of the actor or act plus approval. Acknowledgement itself does not necessarily imply an approval or disapproval or any other thing beyond the knowledge that an action or statement has been observed and is received. In signaling with the morse code the receiver of a message transmits an R to the sender as a signal that the message has been received, which is to say acknowledged. There is such a thing as overacknowledgement and there is such a thing as under-acknowledgement. A correct and exact acknowledgement communicates to someone who has spoken that what he has said has been heard. An acknowledgement tends to terminate or end the cycle of a communication, and when expertly used can sometimes stop a continued statement or continued action. An acknowledgement is also part of the communication formula and is one of its steps. The Scientologist, sometimes, in using Scientologese abbreviates this to “Ack”; he “acked” the person. (LRH Def. Notes)

AFFINITY, 1. the feeling of love or liking for something or someone. Affinity is a phenomena of space in that it expresses the willingness to occupy the same place as the thing which is loved or liked. The reverse of it would be antipathy, “dislike” or rejection which would be the unwillingness to occupy the same space as or the unwillingness to approach something or someone. It came from the French, affinite, affinity, kindred, alliance, nearness and also from the Latin, affinis, meaning near, bordering upon. (LRH Def. Notes) 2. the ability to occupy the space of, or be like or similar to, or to express a willingness to be something. (SH Spec 83, 6612C06) 3 . the relative distance and similarity of the two ends of a communication line. (Dn 55!, p. 35) 4 . emotional response; the feeling of affection or the lack of it, of emotion or misemotion connected with life. (HCOB 21 Jun 71 I) 5 . the attraction which exists between two human beings or between a human being and another life organism or between a human being and mest or theta or the Supreme Being. It has a rough parallel in the physical universe in magnetic and gravitic attraction. The affinity or lack of affinity between an organism and the environment or between the theta and mest of an organism and within the theta (including entheta) of the organism brings about what we have referred to as emotions. (SOS Gloss) 6 . in its truest definition which is coincidence of location and beingness, that is the ultimate in affinity. (9ACC-10, 5412CM20)

ARC:

A word made from the initial letters of Affinity, Reality and Communication which together are considered to equal understanding. ARC is pronounced as three letters A-R-C.

COMMUNICATION, 1 . the consideration and action of impelling an impulse or particle from source point across a distance to receipt point with the intention of bringing into being at the receipt point a duplication and understanding of that which emanated from the source point. (HCOB 5 Apr 73) 2 . the first and most basic definition of any part of communication is that communication or any part thereof is a consideration. As duplication is a consideration, communication is possible to the degree that the preclear can freely make considerations. (COHA, pp. 170-171) 3 . the operation, the action, by which one experiences emotion and by which one agrees. Communication is not only the modus operandi, it is the heart of life and is by thousands of per cent the senior in importance to affinity and reality. (PAB 1) 4 . any ritual by which effects can be produced and perceived. Thus a letter, a bullet, the output of theta “flitter” are all, to us, communication. (PAB 4) 5 . the ability to translate sympathy or some component of sympathy from one terminal to another terminal. (Spr Lect 5, 5303CM25) 6 . an interchange of energy from one beingness to another in the thetan, and in Homo sapiens, communication is known as perception. (Scn 8- 8008, p. 21) 7 . the handling of particles, of motion. (PAB 1) 8 . the interchange of perception through the material universe between organisms or the perception of the material universe by sense channels. (Scn 0-8, p. 83) 9 . the interchange of ideas across space. (Scn 0-8, p. 36) 10 . the use of those sense channels with which the individual contacts the physical universe. (DAB, Vol. II, p. 218)

REALITY, 1 . is, here on earth, agreement as to what is. This does not prevent barriers or time from being formidably real. It does not mean either that space, energy or time are illusions. It is as one knows it is. (COHA, p. 249) 2 . That sequence which can, we say this person is suffering from reactive conduct. He has a reactive mind. In other words, his association has become too blatantly in error for him any longer

Wins & Success Stories from the Freezone

We get many success stories in the Freezone of auditing, training and even just from reading Lafayette Ron Hubbard Books!

Here is just a small selection

Science of Survival Book Win

I know I mentioned this before, but I keep getting wins from this book. This is, without a doubt, one of the most profound and powerful books I have EVER read. Even the discussion of each of the columns of the chart is so amazing. The entire essence of a person is laid out in each. I know I am getting wiser and more in tune with myself, and my fellow man by reading it. God bless L. Ron Hubbard.

Jeff

Training Win

Being on course is great! I know there were a flurry of posts recently on this very subject, but really it cannot be overemphasized how incredibly, wonderfully fantastic it is to have a course room there! In the FZ. All the fun, all the ARC and camaraderie, all the wins I remember from being on course in COS, and none of the bullshit, none of the suppression! It's easy to take it for granted, but it could just as easily not be there! How many other FZ course rooms are there, extant, open for training 6 days a week every week? Pat and Ray, the rest of the staff, all the students are to be highly commended! I appreciate you all!

Purification Rundown Win

I've just finished the purification r/d, but really I feel like I've started something even bigger. I've had so many wins and cognitions I couldn't even adequately list them all. One thing is for certain - I have a clean body, and a clear mind, and am now more determined than ever to get up the Bridge and continue improving my body, mind and spirit. On top of that certainty, and the lighter, cleaner feeling I have physically, I have also lost weight, stopped smoking and abusing alcohol, and I don't even need caffeine anymore. I wake up every morning eager to live well and continue making gains and improving myself. Enormous thanks go out to CB, FS, and my twin, JJ.

Andrew

Drug Rundown

"On the Drug Rundown I feel unbothered by drugs I have done and there are no more past upsets from drugs. Another nice win was I gained a greater certainty of past lives. I feel good in general in the area of drugs and alcohol I have taken and don't feel bad about the drugs I've done anymore."

ARC Straightwire Completion

In doing this level I realized that I caused my own dwindling spiral. I will never agree to it again. There will be times when I'll have dips; I don't think nothing bad is ever going to happen to me again. But on the larger scale, I don't feel like I'll get any worse. I can pull myself out of it with auditing and my own effort and will in real life! Thanks, Chris"

Grade III

I have just attested to completing Grade III. Of the previous grades, this one has been the fastest to do. It has been relatively calm to do. If I get upset, it lasts very briefly, or I can go and spot the source of the upset. And I realize that if my reaction does not match the current situation, it is because I would be dramatizing something that was earlier! That bank reaction is more real to me! I can see it. (In others too!) Great auditing. Thanks Chris, and of course to the one who made it all possible - LRH."

Clear Win

With the state of Clear on the 1st dynamic, I can easily handle any mental matter, energy, space and time which equate to pictures from ones own time track. ALSO, on of the other definitions of Clear in an absolute sense states that one can confront anything and everything in the past, present and future--- I have seen a big increase in that kind of confront for myself. "Bring it on, baby" kinda thing. "Evil?" "What evil."

Another thing erased is the reactive mind and its' viciousness. Trust me, I know. What used to set me off before in a situation has no effect (cause over mental mass). Another Clear trait I recognize in myself is the increase in being able to have a bigger game and confront what it takes to play that game. One last thing is that I notice others who aren't clear yet, trying to operating underneath their mental MEST or bank.
